

Climate Change Overview Climate change refers to significant changes in global temperatures and weather patterns over time. Human activity, especially the burning of fossil fuels, has been a primary driver of recent climate change. This causes glaciers to melt, sea levels to rise, and extreme weather to become more frequent.